

The Effingham County Board of Commissioners

April 14, 2016

SPLOST Meeting

The Board of Commissioners of Effingham County, Georgia and members of the municipalities (Springfield, Rincon & Guyton) held a meeting to discuss Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax (SPLOST) at 6:00 p.m. Thursday, April 14, 2016 at the Effingham County Administrative Complex, Large Conference Room

PERSONS ATTENDING THE MEETING

Commissioner Jamie Deloach, Commissioner Reggie Loper, Mr. Raymond Dickey – Rincon Attorney, Commissioner Wendall Kessler, Commissioner Vera Jones, Ken Lee – Rincon Mayor, Jeff Lariscy – Guyton Mayor, Commissioner Forrest Floyd, Commissioner Phil Kieffer, Toss Allen – County Administrator, Stephanie Johnson – County Clerk, Joanna Wright – Finance Director, Brett Bennett – Springfield City Manager, Barton Alderman – Springfield Mayor, Wanda Simmons – Interim Rincon City Manager, Lameisha Hunter – Rincon Planner, Christi Picker – Rincon Council Member and Ann Daniel - Rincon Council Member.

MEETING

The meeting was called to order at 6:19 pm. The following items were discussed:

- How to proceed, by percentages or population
- Percentages for the County and Municipalities per DCA data
- Population for the County and Municipalities per DCA data

- Funds collected over 44 out of 60 months, estimating $28 million including $16 million for the Jail, per the Department of Labor website
- The projection of SPLOST funds to be approximately $70 million
- Cities to submit to percentages to the County by April 26th.
- The majority in attendance agreed on a referendum set by population

ADJOURNMENT

The workshop adjourned at 7:15 pm.

Wendall Kessler, Chairman

Stephanie Johnson, County Clerk